BOOK CATLEA

Book singer-songwriter, multi-instrumentalist Catlea for a memorable show your patrons won't forget. In support of their new album, "Language Barrier" the hour-long fourteen song set of highly polished, radio-ready songs are delivered in an energetic show of catchy indie-pop tunes. Catlea's charismatic stage presence and amazing vocals have been honed by attending the School for the Creative and Performing Arts, performing in a dozen music videos, and live performances in Cincinnati and Barcelona.

Since their first song in mid-2019, Catlea has:

- Released 11 international singles produced in LA, New York, Chicago, London, Barcelona, and Bucharest
- Achieved over 5 million streams
- Gathered 140,000 followers on social media and streaming services
- Garnered 750,000 YouTube views

Signed to Warning Shot Records, the Cincinnati native spent three years writing, producing, and perfecting ten new alt-indie songs and then worked closely with producer Jason Boshoff (Ed Sheeran, Josh Groban, David Gray, Rufus Wainwright) of Room to Studios in Barcelona, Spain. All Catlea vocals were recorded locally at PLAY Audio (formerly Gwynne Sound).

BOOK CATLEA

Catlea's stage show with guitarist Max Shirley was choreographed and rehearsed during three intensive weeks in Barcelona under the musical direction of Jason Boshoff and guitarist Oscar Garcia-Bragado of Room to Studios.
